Dear Parents and Carers,

I can't believe how fast the first half-term has gone!

To all the children who started in September, it's like they have been with us for years and some of the Year 6's seem ready for secondary school already!

As I write this, I can hear Baby Shark in the background which means the disco is in full swing. Thank you to Friends of Coddington School for organising this. I've still got 49 children that haven't paid, can I ask you to please make this payment asap to allow us to continue to offer these experiences.

We hope you found parents evening useful, any cancelled appointments due to staff absences will be rearranged after half-term. Apologies for the inconvenience.

Lastly, a huge thank you for supporting me in my first 6 weeks of Headship. It is an absolute pleasure to lead the school.

Mrs Major

Gold Book

No Gold Book this week due to the disco. I would like to recognise our school parliament, eco-ambassadors, sports ambassadors, and librarians for the brilliant work they have started – they are all very keen to make a difference.
